ADVANCED COPY SELECTION

This powerful SharePoint extension becomes available once you enter edit mode on a SharePoint page.

You can easily select the destination website and page. Below that, you'll see a structure identical to the page you're on, making it easier to identify the components you're selecting.

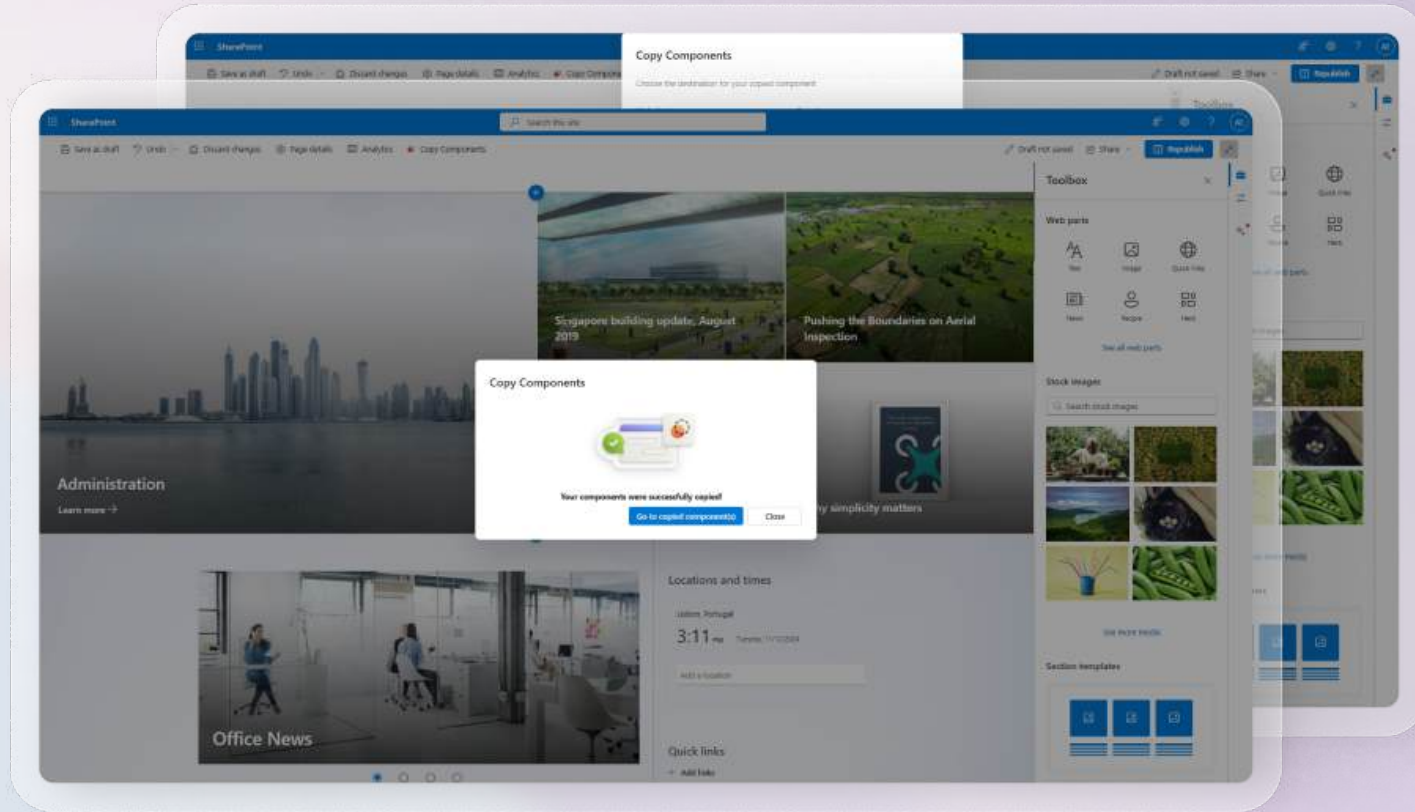

Choose as many components as you want, from full sections and columns to isolated web parts. Then, just click copy, and the process will begin! The configurations of the web parts are preserved, saving you a lot of work on repetitive pages and ensuring a seamless, hassle-free experience.
